
Student Festival

The annual NSW Student Festival will be held in the [illegible] Week of Second Session (8th-12th August). In the run-up to the [illegible] is designed to focus activities on [illegible] from the [illegible] academy, [illegible] the poster is about the celebration of Aboriginal [illegible] lends to a much freer, jubilant atmosphere. [illegible] verse and has always been diverse. Communities throughout the country have [illegible] ucr and is strengthening.

[illegible] successive gover[illegible] with international awareness and white middle cla[illegible] country music with REEL [illegible] can hinder the re-emergence of the A[illegible]

[illegible] will be a [illegible] include three cultural exhibit[illegible] Studies, Warre[illegible] by the Australian [illegible]

Other special events in the Festival week include:

MONDAY 8TH

Opening of the Student Festival in the Roundhouse.

[illegible] the painting of a wilderness society mural on the Library [illegible] 10.00am-2pm. Twelve wea[illegible]

[illegible] Country Students' Association [illegible] Lebanese, one [illegible] communities in Australia. The [illegible] beings moving [illegible] pw[illegible] today's A[illegible] starts 12.45pm at the Library, the library [illegible] Lawn. Megaprizes (inc[illegible]

GEORGE WASHING MACHINE in the Union [illegible] 8pm

FRIDAY 12TH