The Respondent may admit to allegations raised in the complaint at any time during the complaint handling process.

4.1.7 If in the opinion of the DO they consider that there is no additional probative or relevant evidence likely to be discovered during an investigation, the DO may, at their discretion, issue a determination.

4.1.8 The DO may, at their sole discretion, dismiss a complaint at any stage of the complaint handling process.

4.1.9 A complaint may be referred to another university or external process at any time.

For example, where the complaint raises behaviour that is, or should be, addressed according to laws, regulations, codes of conduct, policies and procedures. A complaint relating to possible criminal conduct may be referred to NSW Police and/or a professional standards organisation.

4.2 Statement of allegations

4.2.1 Where the DO determines that an investigation is required, the Respondent will be provided with a written statement of allegations.
