

Statement of Ethical Principles

NASFAA members are required to adhere to the following Statement of Ethical Principles as a condition of membership.

The primary goal of the financial aid professional is to help students achieve their educational potential by providing appropriate financial resources. Our members are required to exemplify the highest level of ethical behavior in helping students and families find the best ways to pay for college and demonstrate the highest level of professionalism. We take great pride in our essential task of helping our students and families determine the best ways to meet their

3. Be aware of the issues affecting students and advocate their interests at the institutional, state, and federal levels.
 4. Support efforts to encourage students, as early as the elementary grades, to aspire to and plan for education beyond high school.
 5. Educate students and families through quality consumer information.
- 