

Welcome to The Online Teaching Mentor Program at Gavilan College!

This pilot program will last through the fall 2020 semester to help the College create an Online Teacher Mentor program. Your participation and feedback contribute to the success of the program.

Expected Outcomes:

Mentees will be able to

- x apply the principles and pedagogy of teaching online
- x apply online teaching tools and policies
- x submit their online course for Peer Online Course Review (POCR)

Mentors will have

- x use the Course Design Rubric to give feedback to Mentees throughout the semester.
- x encourage mentees to apply to have their course reviewed for "Quality Reviewed" status through the POCR process
- x provide feedback regarding the experience.

Tools for Participants:
