Dr. Rose She came to say hello and will continue to try and stop in at ASGC. Today will be the first of many public forums. It will be held today during college hour in SS205. We will use this time to talk. It is an opportunity to discuss things as they come up. If you would like me to accompany you in recruitment, please ask me and I will come and if you have any events that you want me to be a part of please let me know. We are about to start an educational master plan. We are including students, community members, staff, and faculty and beyond. The contract will go forward to the board of trustees in October. A lot of our attention right now is on enrollment. We were able to increase our enrollment by 115 fulltime students. We are planning our largest winter intercession ever. There will be general education courses, distance education courses, and we will have a new building in spring 2017. The sheriff will be on campus on Monday. There are a lot of positive things and change on campus.
