Responsibilities Policy are not fulfilled, members violate the Gavilan College Code of Conduct, ~~too many~~four (4) unexcused absences, or if the actions of the member reflect negatively on the ASGC and its mission and programs.

Excused absences require 24 hour notice and/or official documentation of absence to be provided to ASGC Advisor and ASGC President. ASGC members who arrive or leave more than fifteen (15) minutes late without prior notice to the ASGC Advisor and ASGC President will be considered a late arrival or early departure. Two late arrivals and early departure is equivalent to one (1) unexcused absence. ASGC members who have two unexcused (2) absences in a row or four unexcused (4) absences in a semester constitutes grounds for a vote of no-confidence which will result in loss of voting privileges. The president and ASGC Advisor must attempt to communicate with absent members prior to beginning a no-confidence action. Attempted communication with absent members must be documented.

Members who are absent will be required to produce a detailed, typed report for the next the ASGC meeting. The report includes, but is not limited to, projects currently in progress, projected projects with start dates, and current visions and ideas moving forward and anything important mentioned in their committee meeting.

The process for recommending the removal of a member may be initiated by any member of the ASGC Senate. The action for removal will be brought to the president and or advisor, unless the recommendation for removal is for the President. In such case recommendation shall only be given to the advisor.
